
Rungs where both tiers have a B(A) (the pipeline accounting covers solvent rungs only). They are close in relative terms at large B(A) but not equal: the largest absolute gap in Germany is 44 points at $100mn, and gaps grow with mandate size. Tier B is primary; the cost-parity figure shows which conventions differ. Agreement of the tiers would not be confirmation of the capacity effect.