
B(A) = capped minus uncapped mean net return of the decile composites, Tier B (pipeline accounting), solvent rungs only; bars: unadjusted 95% studentised-bootstrap intervals. Hollow markers: solvent but near-ruined comparator (terminal wealth < 0.1). B(A) is an accounting difference against an infeasible plan, not realised or investable performance.